2 Kilometers West of the Maritime New City, NIL is located the Slums, Area 3.
A place that recycles the residue left after refining crystals
Because of the high levels of pollution caused by the gases produced during the recycling process, the percentages of dolls are high

Because of the frequent doll appearances, public safety became a mess and countless criminal organizations were created

And thanks to that it became a city over flowing with work for freelance mercenaries.

As Area 3 became a criminal city covered in the gaseous fog, the government decided on a special countermeasure.

They handed the rights of police enforcement and supervision of business over to the world's second largest mercenary company, 'Gryphon'.

However, unlike the hopes that 'Gryphon's' great strength would help settle the Slums, the frequency of doll appearances and public safety only got worse.

Regardless of what state the Slums are in, 'Gryphon's' unparalleled authority has continued today.

The Slums, Area 3, Gryphon Control Tower

Director Ishiwara.

Team leader Marida is on the line.

Put her through.

Looking for a Part-time Wait Staff.
The work is easy and pays well.
that cheap-ass Madam would buy you a new arm...
Cafe DAWN

This arm cost quite the pretty penny.

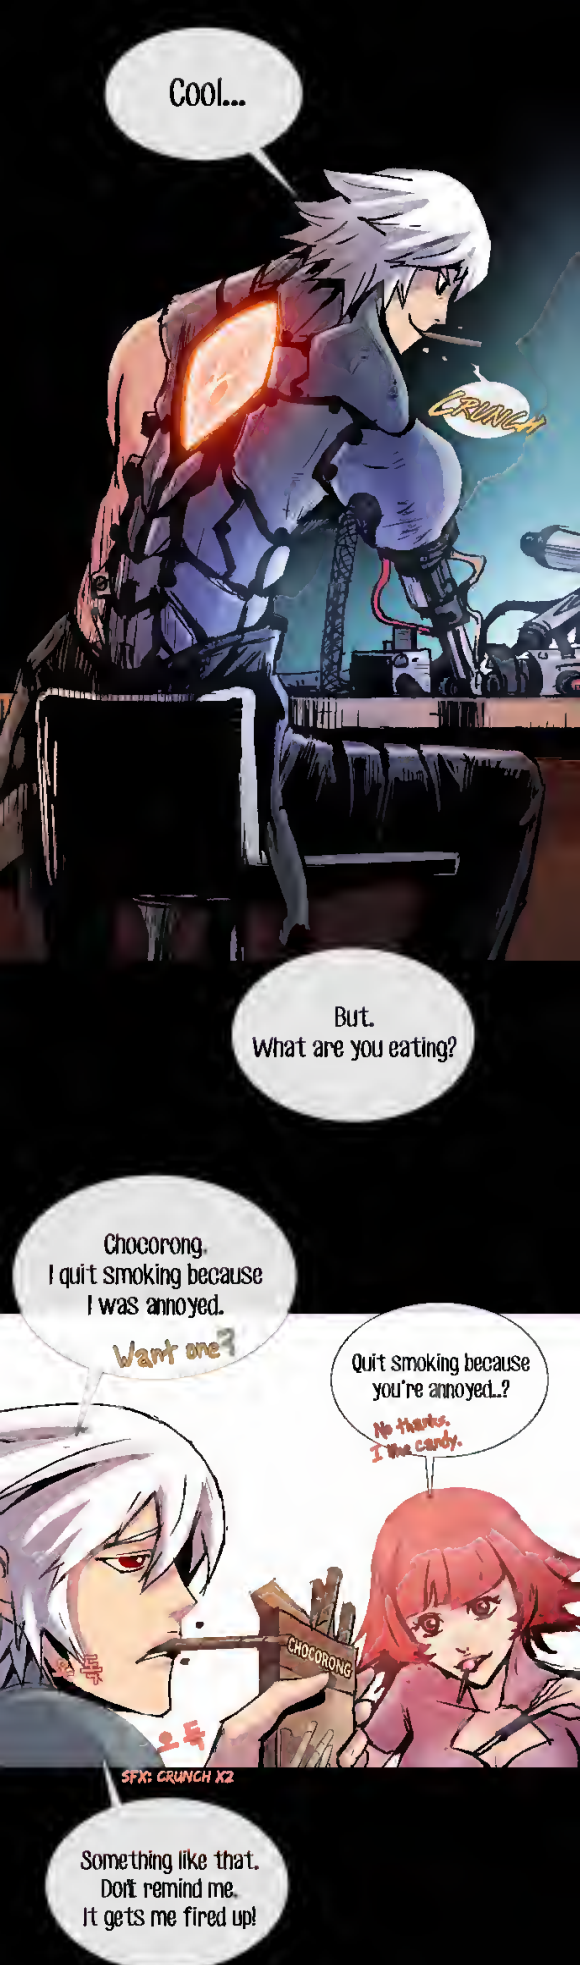
SFX: ZING
It's made entirely of A-class Premium Crystals.

Each joint has a magma engine attached to it
And it should be at least 5 times stronger than your previous arm.
It won't break as easily as your last arm.



Cool...
CRUNCH
But.
What are you eating?
Chocorong.
I quit smoking because
I was annoyed.
Want one?
Quit smoking because you're annoyed..?
No thanks.
I like candy.
CHOCORONG
SFX: CRUNCH X2
Something like that.
Don't remind me.
It gets me fired up!

And finally once I install the data we'll be finished. One second
Its hard parts to find but you managed somehow.

Hey! What is that derogatory tone talking about my Got Hand number 1
This piece of crap. Got Hand my ass.
And if this is number 1 do you intend to make a number 2 and 3 also?

What about you Jane? Isn't it cool?
It's horr~ible! It doesn't look like a man!

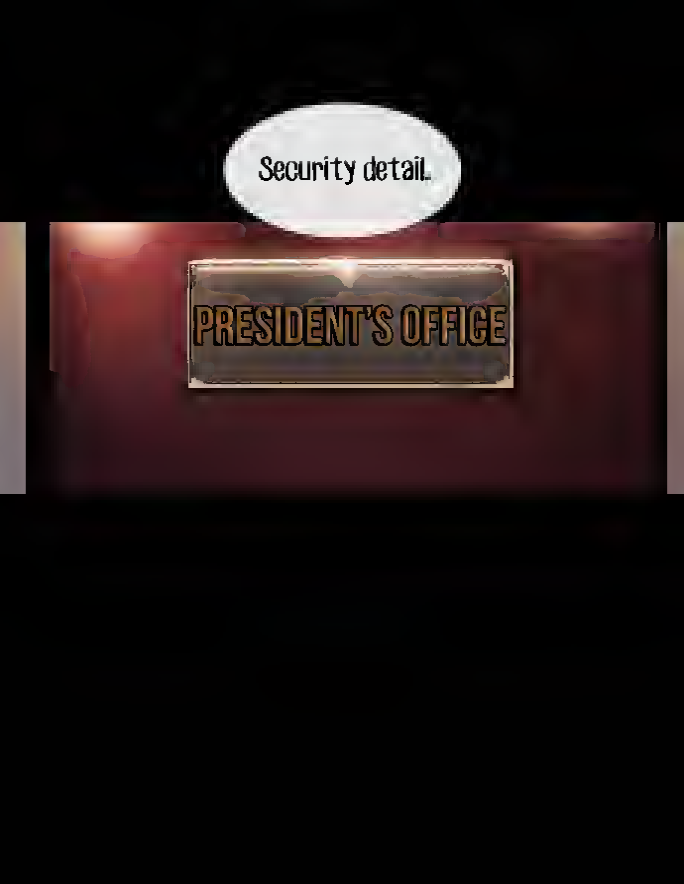
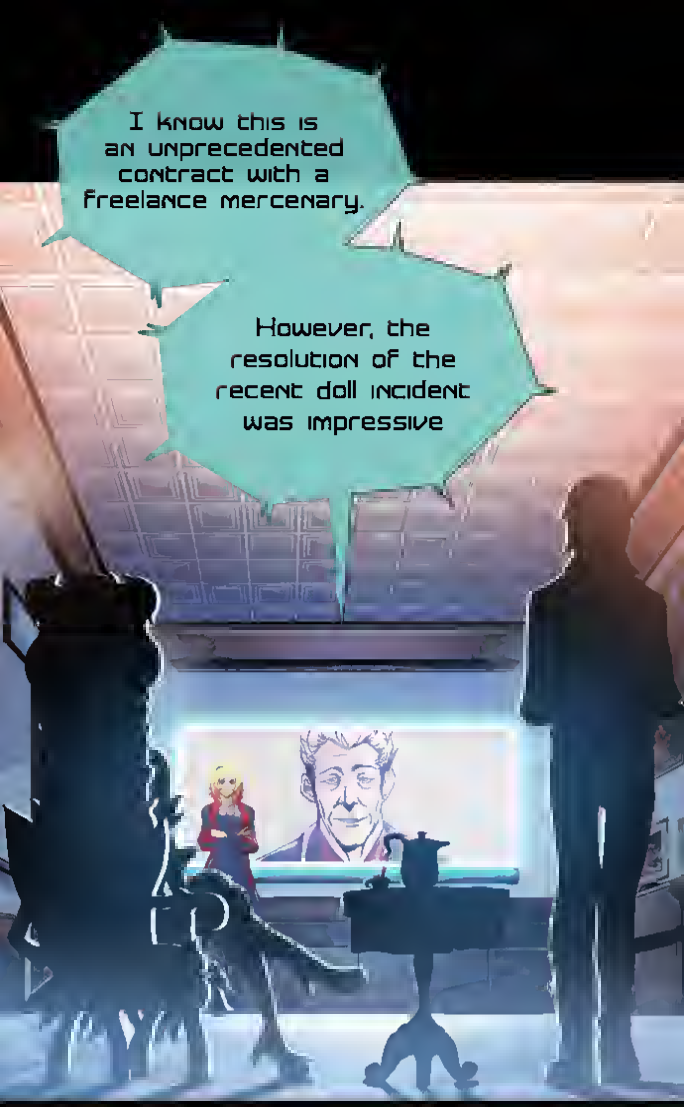
Tsk! It's hard talking with people with no sense.
You made the weird arm!
And why are you here?
휙
SFX: WHIP
I'm not here to look at your unmanly face.



Security detail.
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE



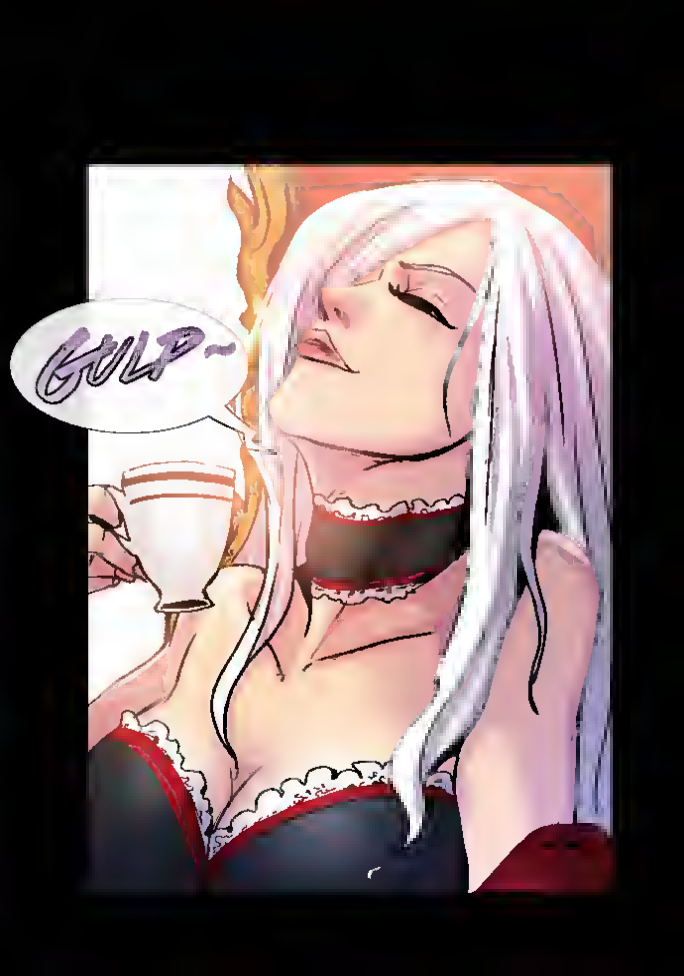
I know this is an unprecedented contract with a freelance mercenary.
However, the resolution of the recent doll incident was impressive

And with leader Marida's strong recommendation I have followed through with this

Until we can solve the recent cases of crystal theft.
Though temporary I give you monopoly of doll extermination.

What will you do?
Madam
Hmm~

Unn~



GULP~

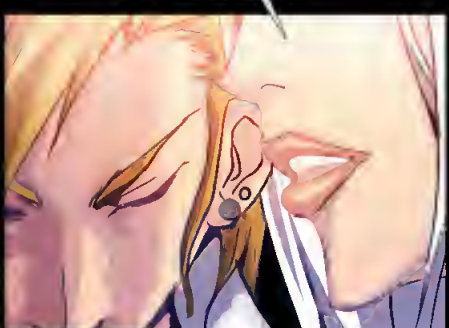
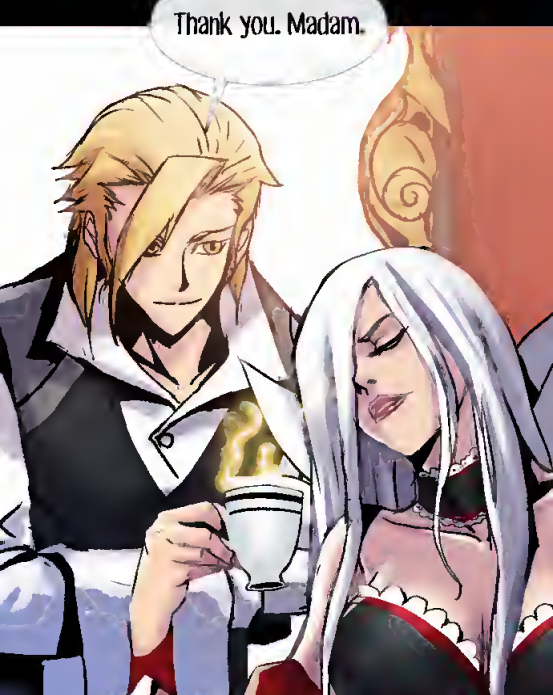
.....



You're happy because of the good coffee.

Thank you. Madam.



Yes.. I understand.

.....?

I'm the manager of the cafe. Kai.
Due to Madam's personal reasons it is difficult for her speak
So I will be speaking on her behalf.
Madam says as long as the money is paid on time she will sign the contract.

It was a good meeting.

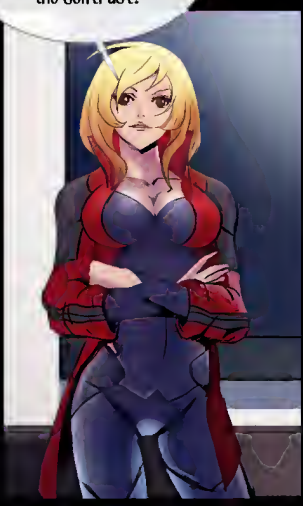
I'm slowly getting tired of whiskey..

I want to try coffee that brings happiness...will you give me a chance? Madam.

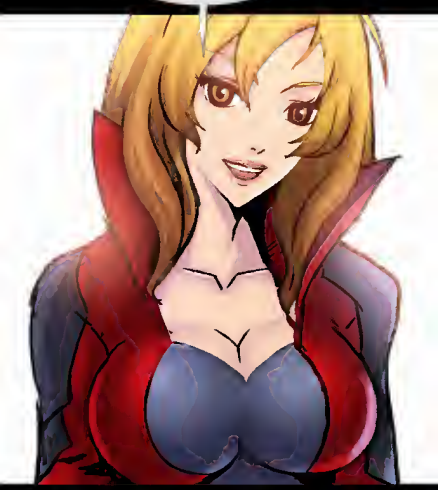
Madam says for Director, the doors of the café are always open.
I look forward to it. Marida will give you the exact details of the contract..
I will see you later in the office, Leader.
Understood.

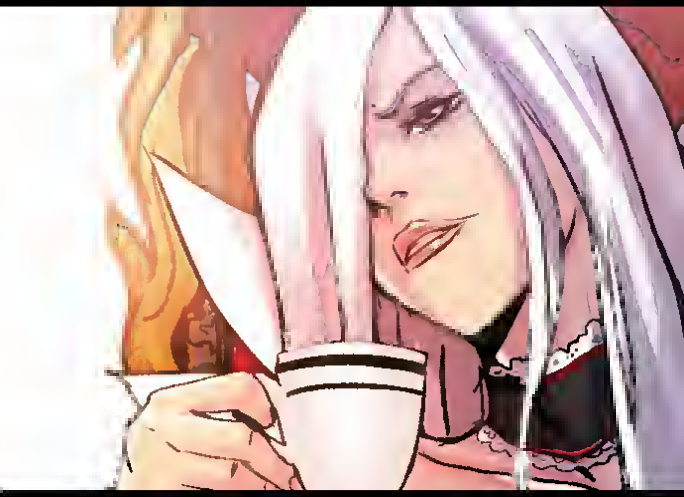
Connection Ended.

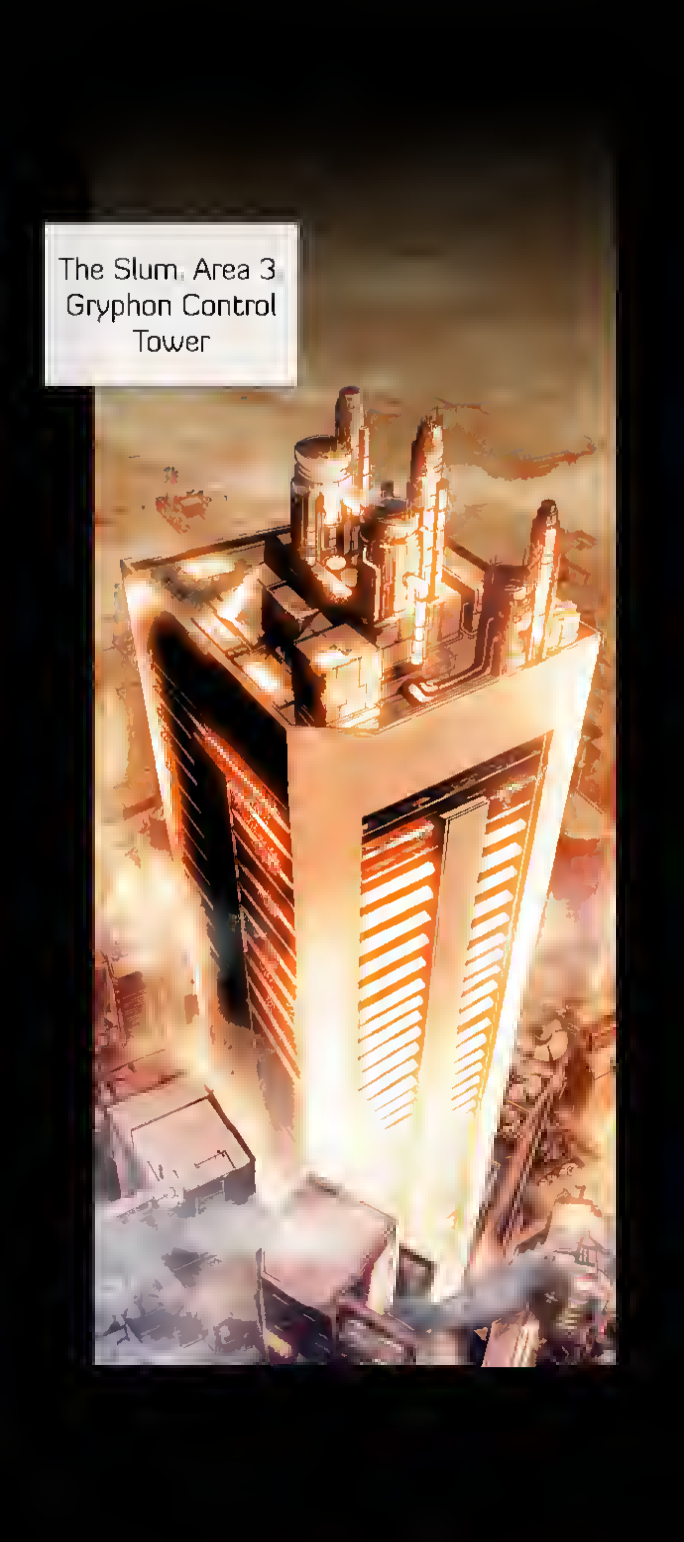
Now~ Madam. Shall we talk about the contract?



The details of the contract is Crazy Dog. Lend us Crazy Dog.







The Slum, Area 3
Gryphon Control
Tower

Though his doll hunting skills are amazing but just trusting in his combat skills only.

Leader Marida's decision to bring in a newly formed mercenary company is too unconventional.

New team leader from headquarters... Marida Jin.

It's suspicious she's in charge of the stolen crystals cases...

They don't make such a fuss over a few trash crystals going missing.

From the beginning, headquarters thought poorly of me...

Finally they've put a watch dog on me.

What's been going on with the Phantom's Eye?
Tests are on standby.

Connect them.

SFX: BING~

Nice to see you. Director.
This is the memory disk you gave me. It is amazing.
Currently, we've only been able to analyze 20% of the contents. However, it seems to be amazing.

Unfortunately, because the memory disk is broken, it will be difficult to restore all of the data.
However, we will be able to learn so much just from analyzing this.

Tell me about the disk analyzation later, I'm curious about the "Phantom's Eye"

Oh my..
I got so excited.

Created from the currently analyzed data
"PHANTOM'S EYE"

It's prepared 1500 meters in the air over the Slums.
It's only 30% complete but there is no trouble in testing it.

Start.
